

Mudfest 2012

October 6th

Spanish Village, Balboa Park 10am-4pm
1770 Village Place, San Diego

What is Mudfest? Mudfest is a free day of fun filled pottery events and competitions for kids and adults. Free pottery lessons are given throughout the day by master potters. There will be a kids tent with fun activities and projects for your young ones to enjoy. Come to watch and compete in these great events:

Tandem one arm Throw
Tallest Thrown Pot
Scariest Clay Monster

Coed Team Sculpture
Coed 3 Man Relay Throw
Best Tea Pot

Blindfold throwing
Best Funky Clay Box

And it wouldn't be Mudfest without the infamous No Hands throw!

Sponsored By:

FREEFORM
CLAY AND SUPPLY

So come and enjoy the fun. Registration opens at 10:00am. Kick off your Fall season by getting your hands dirty at Mudfest 2012. See you there! For more information on attending or if you'd like to volunteer, email Louis Guskey lguskey@gmail.com or visit the CASD website www.clayartistsofsandiego.org