Bus Trip Information

Many of you have been on our previous bus trips and have been anticipating our next one. This time we will travel up the 5 with a stop at Aardvark Clay Supplies. You will have approximately 1 hour to shop for clay and tools.

Next we will board our bus and head towards Los Angeles stopping at LACMA and Freehand Gallery. At this time I'm not sure which we will go to first. There will be food options at both locations for lunch before we start our exploring. There are several exhibits at the LACMA so check their website to plan your viewing. At Freehand Gallery we will meet with Carol Sauvion, the owner of Freehand Gallery and Executive Director of Crafts In America. Carol will give us a tour of both galleries and talk about submitting work to galleries.

8:30am Pick up will be at the Old Town Transit Center located at: 4009 Taylor St. There should be ample parking that time in the morning. Please be there by 8:15am so that we can load the bus as soon as it gets there.

9:00am Pick up will be at the La Costa Park & Ride located at: 626 La Costa Ave. at I 5 in Carlsbad.

Registration Information

Our bus can hold 29 passengers. If we fill up quickly I will start a waiting list and see if we can upgrade to a larger bus. As always, plenty of snacks and water will be available to you on the bus, but meals will be on your own. LACMA has a nice restaurant and I heard there are Food Trucks outside as well. There are several great restaurants within walking distance to Freehand Gallery. Or, feel free to pack a lunch or dinner if that is what you would prefer.

CASD members will be given preference for the first two weeks of registration and may sign up with 1 non-member. After that I will begin adding friends of CASD, or other non-members. You will receive a confirmation as I accept registrations along with any email updates as well as a reminder a few days before the trip.

Simply fill out the Registration form, attach a check, and then mail it to our Post Office Box. I will be using the date stamp on the envelope for accepting registrations.
