Learn new ways of decorating pottery with Rachel Donner. She will demonstrate her decoration techniques using underglaze, inlay, paper stencils, water etching, and sgraffito in the morning. The second half of the workshop is hands-on as workshop attendees try her demonstrated techniques on leather hard clay tiles. For those of you who have never tried these techniques or need a refresher, this will be a fun workshop. All skill levels are welcome to attend.

Bio

Rachel has been a full time Studio Potter since 2016 and lives in Santa Fe, NM. This summer she is attending CSU Long Beach as a Resident Artist, one of the many Residencies she has attended. Her work has been included in exhibition and in galleries around the country.

Supply List

Students need to bring a pair of scissors, a variety of paint brushes, small sponges (just the basic yellow round ones are fine or a mud sponge or whatever you normally use), a small bucket or plastic bowl for water, pin tool, x acto knife and whatever you use for sgraffito and 2-3 small bats or work boards . These are the basic tools needed. A reminder and complete list will follow closer to the workshop.
